Subject: [EXTERNAL] RE: CLJA - United States' Motion to Seek Leave re D.E. 886
Date: Wednesday, July 1, 2026 9:52:38 AM

Sara,

The PLG does not consent to the United States filing further briefing in response to Order 886. Your characterization of our position during the meet and confer is incorrect, as we stated then that we would oppose further briefing. If the United States files a motion for leave to file further briefing in response to Order 886, the PLG will oppose.

Warm regards,
Robin

Subject: CLJA - United States' Motion to Seek Leave re D.E. 886

CAUTION: THIS EMAIL IS FROM AN EXTERNAL SOURCE. It may contain viruses. Do not click on a link, open or enable any file unless you trust the sender.

Counsel,

Pursuant to our prior discussions and communications, the United States intends to file a motion to seek leave to respond to Plaintiffs' Leadership Group's Notice of Proposed Order Re: Order 886 and related exhibits (D.E. 891, 891-1, 891-2) (collectively, "PLG's Submission"). The United States previously reserved its right to seek leave to respond to PLG's Submission in my June 26, 2026, email and on page 3 of the United States' Notice of Filing of Proposed Order in Response to D.E. 886 (D.E. 890).

Because PLG did not express opposition to this request during our meet and confer or our email communication, we presume that PLG does not oppose our filing. However, please let us know prior to 12pm tomorrow, July 1, if our presumption is incorrect. If PLG would like to discuss further, we can set up a call prior to that time.

Thank you,
Sara
